STAY

at Te Arai Links Resort

Located approximately one hour's drive north of Auckland, Te Arai Links is an all-inclusive golf complex featuring two world-renowned courses created by Coore & Crenshaw and Tom Doak, respectively.

The picturesque coastal landscape of Te Arai also provides a stunning backdrop for the accommodation, which was designed by Studio John Irving, and its two eateries, one of which is situated on the putting green. Te Arai is designed to provide the ultimate in luxury and comfort for the most avid of golfers, those simply seeking a tranquil escape, and lovers of good hospitality.

TE ARAI LINKS

EXPERIENCE

The Te Arai Links South Course

The South Course at Te Arai Links has sixteen ocean view golf holes and eight holes bordering directly on the sea. Without question, it will be a photogenic and visually stunning golf course. The holes are as varied in appearance and character as the land itself. There are highly individualistic, some might even say, quirky holes like the shortish par fours at three, six and sixteen, each reflecting the drama and unique character of the landforms that created their concepts. There are more traditional yet equally dramatic holes like the inland second, the tenth and eleventh; and there are the visually spectacular seaside holes at seven, eight, nine and fifteen through eighteen.

DINE

on a Putting Green at Te Arai

Once you've had a day of enjoyable golf, you should reward yourself with a tasty drink and some delicious food.

A trip to Te Arai Links is not finished without a visit to Ric's. With an inviting and calming ambience, Ric's is the ideal spot to relax after a game of golf. There are plenty of drinks to choose from, a wood-fired pizza oven available, and a unique feature – a two-acre putting green (The Playground). Eating great food is a fundamental part of the Te Arai Links experience.

Le Arai Links North Course

BE THE ONE OF THE FIRST TO PLAY

The Te Arai Links North Course

The local Maori meaning of Te Arai is “the other side of the veil” and it does summarise the area very well. As you play from the 1st tee, the land, the surrounding terrain and the ocean are all unveiled as you play. A Tom Doak designed course, it is odd having to apologize for a golf course that ‘only’ features the ocean for seven of the 18 holes, but that is how spoiled golfers have become by the best of New Zealand’s modern golf courses. The North Course promises to be near the head of the class.

Queenstown

RELAX

At the Crowne Plaza

Crowne Plaza Queenstown sits in the heart of Queenstown, enjoying panoramic views over The Remarkables mountain range and Lake Wakatipu, New Zealand's longest lake. Just across the road is Steamer Wharf where you will find dining, bars and entertainment.

This is the ideal rest and recovery destination for the adventure that awaits at Jack's Point and Millbrook Golf Clubs in the days following.
